GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

Gray, Gray, & Gray Ranked Among Top Massachusetts Accounting Firms

The Boston Business Journal has ranked Gray, Gray & Gray as the 15th largest accounting firm in Massachusetts. The annual rankings are based on the size of the firm's professional staff. Gray, Gray & Gray moved up two places, from 17th on the list last year.

"As one of the few independent accounting firms ranked in the top tier, we are able to offer our clients the right balance of the top level services you'd expect from a national firm, and the personal attention you can only get from a local partner," said Joe Ciccarello, managing partner of Gray, Gray & Gray. "We are honored that our approach of helping our clients achieve their goals by 'going beyond the numbers' for them has resulted in our place among the top firms in the state." Read more here.

Audit Your Retirement Plan Before the Feds Do

Many companies are unaware that their retirement plans have problems until they are audited by the IRS or investigated by the Department of Labor. However, by self-auditing your plan, you can identify and correct any problems before the federal government initiates an investigation. Click "Full Article" for six areas that can get your company in trouble.

Are You Getting Ripped Off by Workers' Compensation Fraud?

Workers' Compensation is a great resource for employees who genuinely need it, and a protection for the employer. It's also a significant expense for businesses. Unfortunately, among those employees who are less than honest, a growing number have begun to view Workers' Comp as a pot of gold to be mined.

Here are some red flags to watch for when Workers' Comp claims arise.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
