GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

Gray, Gray, & Gray Continues to Rank Among Top Massachusetts Accounting Firms

The Boston Business Journal has ranked Gray, Gray & Gray as the 15th largest accounting firm in Massachusetts for the second consecutive year. The annual rankings are based on the size of the firm's professional staff in the state.

"It is gratifying to have the hard work and dedication of our staff to going 'beyond the numbers' for our clients recognized with this high ranking," said Jim DeLeo, Leading Partner of Gray, Gray & Gray. "While some other firms on the Boston Business Journal list are regional offices of large national firms, we are committed to remaining an independent firm so we can focus on serving as trusted advisors and providing personal attention to our clients in Massachusetts and New England." ### Employee Benefits

Tighter Control for Purchases Made With FSA Debit Cards

Flexible spending accounts (FSAs) can provide a real boost to health care consumers. And using them is even easier when combined with debit cards that accountholders use to make health care purchases. But without a significant control system, it's also easy to subvert the purpose of an FSA. That's why certain retailers are required to use an inventory system that limits purchases to FSA-eligible goods only.

Age 50 or Older? Consider Extra Retirement Contributions

Studies show that many Americans aren't setting aside enough money to make their retirement years secure. If your employees are getting a late start, even contributing the maximum amount each year might not be enough. That's why the IRS allows taxpayers age 50 and older to make additional "catch-up" contributions. Continue reading to find out how fast those extra deposits can add serious money to your nest egg.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
