Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP's News

The Outlook for Internships is Looking Up

Thinking about bringing some interns on board this summer? If so, here's some good news: The U.S. Department of Labor recently made its criteria much more flexible when it comes to determining whether an intern working in the private sector is subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act. For many employers, that could tip the scales in favor of sponsoring an internship program. Here's what's new.
