Business Tax

Taxations Issues in the Gig Economy

Mobile apps and online platforms have revolutionized the way many businesses offer services to consumers. Examples of the so-called "Gig" economy are widespread — from ride sharing and vacation rentals to on-demand housekeeping and legal advice. If you decide to jump on the sharing economy bandwagon, it's important to understand the tax rules for recognizing income, making estimated payments and deducting legitimate business expenses.

Personal Tax

How Much Does the IRS Let Delinquent Taxpayers Live On?

The IRS sets up repayment plans for people who fall behind on their taxes. As part of these plans, the tax agency calculates how much individuals need to live based on their circumstances and where they live. From there, the IRS typically comes up with installment payments that will result in Uncle Sam being paid within certain time limits. How much income are delinquent taxpayers allowed to keep?
