GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

Happy 4th of July

This 4th of July, as we celebrate our many freedoms, we would like to extend our deep gratitude to all of the brave men and women who serve and protect to make our freedom possible.

Happy Independence Day to all of our clients, team members and friends of the firm. We wish you and yours a happy and safe July 4th holiday!

Please note: Gray, Gray & Gray's offices will be closed on Wednesday, July 4, 2018 in observance of the holiday.

Benefit Tax Issues

Audit Your Retirement Plan Before the Feds Do

Many companies are unaware their retirement plans have problems until they are audited by the IRS or investigated by the Department of Labor. However, by self-auditing your plan, you can identify and correct any problems before the federal government initiates an investigation. Continue reading for six areas which can get your company in trouble.

Retirement Plans

Designing Retirement Plans for Different Investor Types

If you want maximum employee participation in your company's pension plan, you'll need to consider the differences in your staff members. People need to be comfortable with the level of risk involved in their pension plans, and the degree to which they have to monitor their own investments. This article spotlights ways to address the needs of your employees.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
