Long-Term Care Insurance Can Be a Tax-Free Perk

For tax purposes, long-term care insurance grows more attractive depending on who buys the policy. There's a big difference in the tax implications of a policy purchased by you as an individual and the same policy purchased by your family business. To find out how to maximize the tax benefits before buying, continue reading.

Beware of a 100% Personal Liability Penalty

A harsh and expensive tax penalty can be personally imposed on any person responsible for collecting, accounting for, or turning over taxes to the federal government that were withheld from employees' paychecks. There's often more than one person in a firm who can be hit with the Trust Fund Recovery Penalty, which is also called the 100% Penalty. This article shows you how it works.
