Family Business

Choosing Among the Children

Sibling rivalry is bad enough for parents in their personal lives, but when it filters into the workplace in succession planning it can be downright nerve wracking. But family businesses can't avoid the issue. This article provides some insights into how to deal with it.

Business Tax

Stamp Out Tax Protesters at Your Company

Illegal tax protestors may wind up working for you and calling unnecessary IRS attention to your company. One tactic that protestors use is to file fraudulent W-4 forms with their employers so they don't have any tax withheld from their wages. Some employees have even given their companies phony — but official looking — forms to try and avoid withholding. Here's what to do if you're confronted with this.

Personal Tax

Do Not Take Tax Chances on Gambling

Gambling winnings fall under the Internal Revenue Code definition of gross income "from whatever source derived," and that means they are taxable. Click "Full Article" to learn what information you should keep if you play bingo, head to the racetrack or hit the tables in Vegas -- so you can stay out of trouble with the IRS.
