Announcing Changing the Look of Leadership Seminar

Join the Conversation, Change the World...at the "Changing the Look of Leadership" Seminar on October 17th – sponsored by the Gray, Gray & Gray Women's Alliance.

The face of the business community is changing rapidly, as more women continue to move into leadership roles. How is this transformation impacting you and your organization? What steps can you take to improve and enhance diversity in the workplace and the C-suite? Are you prepared for your future?

We've assembled a stellar panel of women leaders who have redefined the meaning of success. Here's your opportunity to learn from their real-life experiences - from pitfalls to triumphs. Find out more about the promise of bringing women to the corner office and boardroom table.

Seating is limited. Pre-registration required.

Taxation Issues in the Gig Economy

Mobile apps and online platforms have revolutionized the way many businesses offer services to consumers. Examples of the so-called "Gig" economy are widespread — from ride sharing and vacation rentals to on-demand housekeeping and legal advice. If you decide to jump on the sharing economy bandwagon, it's important to understand the tax rules for recognizing income, making estimated payments and deducting legitimate business expenses.

How to Set Up an IRS-Approved Family Loan

It's not unusual to lend money to relatives and friends, but if the loans aren't properly structured with an "adequate" interest rate, you could run into trouble with the IRS. Although interest rates have risen over the last year, today's rates are relatively low from a historic standpoint. Here are the current interest rates and how your family can benefit.
