Employee Benefits

Rules for Auto-Enrollment 401(k)s

Does your company have a 401(k) plan and employees who don't participate? If so, you could make participation "automatic" with a lot more ease than in the past. It has to do with provisions in the Pension Protection Act of 2006. Here are the details of new Labor Department rules on where employers can invest the contributions of participants.

Benefits Administration

Common I-9 and E-Verify Mistakes Employers Make

The rules surrounding the proper use of I-9 forms and E-Verify are precise. With increasing scrutiny on immigration and employment eligibility issues, employers cannot afford to be lax in this area of compliance.

Benefit Tax Issues

Long-Term Care Insurance Can Be a Tax-Free Perk

For tax purposes, long-term care insurance grows more attractive depending on who buys the policy. There's a big difference in the tax implications of a policy purchased by you as an individual and the same policy purchased by your family business. To find out how to maximize the tax benefits before buying, keep reading.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
