Section 179 Made Permanent, But...

Among the provisions of the recently enacted Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes Act of 2015 (PATH) are the $500,000 expensing limitation and $2 million phase-out amounts under Section 179 have been made permanent and retroactive. This provides some certainty for businesses wishing to expense certain purchases immediately instead of amortizing them over time.

There are other changes to Section 179 that are very important to certain businesses. Click "Full Article" to read more.

Family Business

Old Habits May Be Costing You Dearly

Family businesses, like the one in the classic movie, It's a Wonderful Life, have their advantages, as well as their disadvantages. Some businesses hang on to outdated practices or continue to employ relatives who may be detrimental to the company's success. To help take an objective look at your operations, read the "Full Article."

Benefits Administration

Workers' Compensation Vs. Disability Income Insurance

Among individuals who are 20 years old today, one in four will become disabled by the time they retire. The disability may or may not be work-related, but either way, most people aren't prepared for life with a disability. Disability insurance or workers' compensation can help meet the financial needs that are inevitable. This article explains the difference between the two types of insurance.
