Catching Up With Recent Tax Changes

By John W. Cashman, Jr., CPA, Tax Manager at Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP
With input from CPAmerica

In the last three months of 2014, a number of tax law provisions were revised, some were newly introduced, and others clarified by Tax Court rulings. Not every change affects all taxpayers, but one or more may have an impact on your current or future tax returns.

Click here for a quick summary of several of the most recent year-end tax developments.

If you have any questions about recent tax developments, or about any federal, state or local tax issue, please contact Gray, Gray & Gray's Tax Department.
