Timely Opportunities

Countdown to Filing: There's Still Time to Contribute to an IRA or SEP

Saving for retirement is essential for financial security. Fortunately, the government provides tax incentives. You still have time to contribute to an IRA, Roth IRA or SEP plan for the 2012 tax year -- before the April 15 tax filing deadline. You can possibly reduce your tax bill and help make your retirement more secure. Working teens can also contribute and build savings for the future. Here are the basic rules, deadlines and strategies.

If you're getting a refund, you have several options for receiving it. We explain inside.

HSAs: A Great Tax-Saving Opportunity

Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) started as a good idea that got better, thanks to changes in the law made a few years after these accounts were first created. The innovative plans allow individuals and businesses to pay for out-of-pocket health expenses at a lower cost in many cases. Take a look at how HSAs work and how the current rules might favorably affect your business.
