Timely Opportunities

IRS Clarifies W-2 Reporting of Healthcare Costs to Employees

The sweeping healthcare reform law passed in 2010 contains a reporting requirement for employers that is finally kicking in. Employers are required to report the total cost of group health plan coverage during the 2012 calendar year on annual W-2 forms, which must generally be issued to employees by January 31, 2013. Fortunately, there are exemptions from the burdensome requirement for certain employers. Here are the details.
