GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

Be Alert for these Federal Labor Law Enforcement Hot Buttons

Even if you run a tight ship with respect to federal labor laws, it's wise to stay current on what the government considers hot-button issues. Doing so can be helpful as you monitor your company's practices and policies -- looking for areas that could create problems and push some of the hot buttons. Here's the latest summary of where the government is turning its spotlight of enforcement.

Plan Ahead to Make Company-Paid Disability Benefits Tax-Free

Company-paid disability insurance provides protection in the event you suffer a disability or become so ill that you're unable to work. But the value of long-term disability insurance benefits can be eroded if you have to pay taxes on them. Here's an explanation of the rules, along with a strategy your company may want to implement to transform taxable disability benefits into tax-free payments for yourself and other employees.

Benefit Tax Issues

Audit Your Retirement Plan Before the Feds Do

Many companies are unaware their retirement plans have problems until they are audited by the IRS or investigated by the Department of Labor. However, by self-auditing your plan, you can identify and correct any problems before the federal government initiates an investigation. Continue reading for six areas which can get your company in trouble.
