GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

2015 Midyear Tax Planning Letter

Midyear 2015 is upon us and, as usual, ongoing tax planning is proving critical this year. While Congress passed legislation last December that extended a number of expired tax provisions, many were extended only until December 31, 2014. What does this mean for 2015? Stay tuned as the details unfold.

One thing is certain: the tax landscape is complex. Developing effective tax strategies and ways to potentially minimize your taxes could take several months to implement. There's no time like the present to start your tax planning.

Audit Your Retirement Plan Before the Feds Do

Many companies are unaware that their retirement plans have problems until they are audited by the IRS or investigated by the Department of Labor. However, by self-auditing your plan, you can identify and correct any problems before the federal government initiates an investigation. Click "Full Article" for six areas that can get your company in trouble.

HSAs: A Great Tax-Saving Opportunity

Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) started as a good idea which got better, thanks to changes in the law made a few years after these accounts were first created. The innovative plans allow individuals and businesses to pay for out-of-pocket health expenses at a lower cost in many cases. Take a look at how HSAs work and how the current rules might favorably affect your business.

Laws governing the payment of wages are inflexible. That's why, when the owner of one business didn't cash his paychecks -- possibly as a way to lend money to the company -- trouble developed after he died. Read the following case to see what can happen when wages in your business go unpaid, whatever the reason.
