GG&G News - Employee Benefit Plan Audits

Registration Open: Gray, Gray & Gray's 2014 Year-End Planning Seminar

Stay out of the "hot seat" when it comes to taxes and business planning...

There are many changes coming to corporate and individual taxes this year, and our annual Year-End Planning Seminar will let you know what to expect. The leaders in Boston's accounting, tax, legal, and investment communities will go "beyond the numbers" to provide an in-depth look at issues and opportunities in taxation, estate planning, employment law, and wealth management. Don't miss this chance to get a seat at the table for the latest ideas in planning for success.

Space is limited, so be sure to reserve your spot early.

Timely Opportunities

Business Travel Per Diems May Simplify Expense Reporting

Are you tired of keeping detailed records to substantiate business travel expenses? The IRS offers simplified methods for reimbursing employees' out-of-town lodging, meals and incidental expenses that may be worthwhile for some companies. This article discusses government-approved per diem rates, the mechanics of the high-low method and changes that go into effect for travel starting on October 1, 2014.

Employee Benefits

Two Perspectives on the FMLA

Since its passage, the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) has caused many employers to voice concerns about the effects on business operations. That's one of the reasons the Department of Labor put together a report describing the FMLA experiences of both managers and employees. Click "Full Article" to read some comments from the report that details the strengths and weaknesses of the law.

Benefits Administration

Transitional Assignments Help Employees Find Their Way Back to Work

Good employees are hard to find, and expensive to lose. When one goes out on disability, you can help ensure a successful "homecoming" by tailoring the return-to-work plan to his or her post-injury abilities. But don't make the mistake of assigning meaningless tasks. Continue reading to get a list of guidelines that will make the return an easy transition, and at the same time, hold down your Workers' Comp costs.
