Non-Compete Agreements: What Can They Accomplish?

They are based on fear -- fear that an employee might run off to a competitor and take along some highly specialized knowledge. And while that concern is legitimate, non-compete agreements must be phrased carefully and they cannot unreasonably restrict a former employee's activities. Here's a guide to what you can do to protect your company's interests.

Court Decisions Make It Easier to Deduct LLC Losses

A number of court decisions make it easier for LLC owners to escape the passive activity rules and deduct their losses. This is good news for owners because the IRS has been known to make these owners pass stringent tests that were hard to meet. Find out what has changed by clicking "Full Article."
