Year-End Tax Strategies in an Uncertain Environment

No tax year in recent memory has been more tumultuous and uncertain. The combination of a struggling economy, an election year, and massive tax changes, have made tax planning more essential than ever before. Luckily, GG&G is here to help you gain a better understanding of the current tax situation. Here are just a few of the topics we will be covering at our year-end tax seminars:

- Impact of the health care legislation on taxes
- Changes to gifting & estate tax laws
- New "repair regulations" and how they affect your business
- Capital Gain Harvesting
- Will the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) affect you?
- Why it might be a good idea to "accelerate" income this year
- Which tax provisions are expiring this year? Which will remain in effect?

Timely Opportunities

A Safety-First Approach to Year-End Gifting

Benjamin Franklin famously said, "In this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes." But right now, nothing seems more uncertain than taxes, especially when it comes to the estate and gift tax rules for 2013. However, things are clear for this year. So if you are inclined at year end, you can make gifts to loved ones to reduce your estate. Here are the basics.

The IRS recently announced the annual gift tax exclusion amount is going up for 2013. Read on to find out how much it will be.

Surprising Mistakes Employers May Face

Today's employers face a growing list of liability dangers. They begin as soon as a business starts looking for job applicants and can continue even after employees leave the company. Here are three cases involving a medical practice, a manufacturer and a restaurant that highlight some of the surprising dangers all employers might encounter.
