Business Tax

Meal Deductions: Tax Rest for the Weary

When away from home on business, a taxpayer can deduct 50 percent of business-related meals and all incidental expenses, such as tips. But how long must you stay away to qualify for deductions? According to the IRS, you must be gone for "a period substantially longer than an ordinary day's work and you need to get sleep or rest to meet the demands of your work while away." However, one Tax Court case stretched the limits of this "sleep-or-rest" rule. Here are the details.
