Who's Next: Planning a Successful Business Transition

Who's Next: Planning a Successful Business Transition

By Joe Ciccarello, CPA, MST
Managing Partner
Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP

If you own a closely held business, the dream of a long and comfortable retirement could be threatened unless you plan a strategic withdrawal before heading out the door. In many cases, the goal is to leave your company in capable hands so that it can continue to generate income for you long after you have ended day-to-day involvement.

For a family business, the succession strategy often revolves around a new generation of family members gradually taking control of the company. Click
