IRS Provides Guidance on the New 0.9 Percent Medicare Tax

Two new surtaxes are kicking in on January 1, 2013 for some taxpayers. These taxes have nothing to do with the expiring tax breaks involved in the "fiscal cliff." The first is a 3.8 percent Medicare tax on net investment income. The second is an additional 0.9 percent Medicare tax on wages and self-employment income. It's possible for a taxpayer to be subject to both taxes (although not on the same type of income). This article explains how the new 0.9 percent Medicare tax works. Copyright © 2012

Take a Pro-Active Stand Against Harassment

Harassment suits are something your company works hard to avoid, but even the best efforts can fail at times. If an employee does file charges, you can bolster the chances of winning the case by taking certain steps. Conducting a timely, comprehensive investigation shows that your business has zero-tolerance toward harassment. Copyright © 2012
