Human Resources

Know the Rights of Foreign Employees

All employees have the same rights. Your company's best bet for staying out of trouble with regulators is to brush up on state and federal immigration and employment laws. Here are the basics, along with some pointers on hiring staff members who aren't American citizens.

Management

Stamp Out Bad Attitudes and Boost Profits

Stinkin' Thinkin' can plague a company and create unnecessary problems. It can surface during economic slumps or business transitions, when an employee becomes disgruntled, and at other times. Stay on the lookout and if you see it starting to emerge at your business take action immediately! Here's how one absentee owner came to grips with a discontented manager and turned the company around in just a few days.
