Payroll Tax "Holiday" Beginning September 1, 2020

Employers who withhold the 6.2% Social Security tax from employee paychecks may now defer collection and payment of withholding amount for pay periods beginning September 1, 2020 and extending through December 31, 2020. However, the taxes are only deferred – not exempted - and must be paid between January 1, 2021 and April 30, 2021, or else penalties and interest will be applied.

While this may result in employees enjoying a boost in their take home pay this fall, it will also result in smaller paychecks early next year as employers "catch up" with collection and payment of the deferred taxes.
