Employee Benefits

Coping with Language Barriers

Increasing numbers of U.S. residents speak foreign languages and many of them are participating in employee benefit plans. Your company may be required by law to assist them in understanding their benefits. Click "Full Article" for a look at what you must do and how some companies go beyond that.

Benefits Administration

Workers' Compensation Vs. Disability Income Insurance

Among individuals who are 20 years old today, one in four will become disabled by the time they retire. The disability may or may not be work-related, but either way, most people aren't prepared for life with a disability. Disability insurance or workers' compensation can help meet the financial needs that are inevitable. This article explains the difference between the two types of insurance.

Benefit Tax Issues

Long-Term Care Insurance Can Be a Tax-Free Perk

For tax purposes, long-term care insurance grows more attractive depending on who buys the policy. There's a big difference in the tax implications of a policy purchased by you as an individual and the same policy purchased by your family business. To find out how to maximize the tax benefits before buying, keep reading.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
