Rules for Auto-Enrollment 401(k)s

Does your company have a 401(k) plan and employees who don't participate? If so, you could make participation "automatic" with a lot more ease than in the past. It has to do with provisions in the Pension Protection Act of 2006. Here are the details of new Labor Department rules on where employers can invest the contributions of participants.

Retirement Plans

Will Your Employees' Retirement Plans be Within Reach?

Is your employees' future standard of living in jeopardy? Research suggests that a large number of people who are poised to retire within the next couple of decades will be in for a rude financial awakening. Almost 45% of American households are "at risk" of being unable to maintain their pre-retirement standard of living in retirement, according to one study. Read on for more details.

The Advantages of Online Benefits Enrollment

Open enrollment for benefits has long been a stressful time for human resources departments, and uncertainty and disruption for employees. By far the majority of HR professionals say online enrollment has helped the process roll out more smoothly. This article describes the advantages of allowing participants to enroll online.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
