Benefit Tax Issues

Protect Your Company's Plan From an IRS Attack

If your business sponsors a retirement plan, you must invest prudently and stay in compliance with numerous complex federal requirements. If you don't follow the rules, the IRS could disqualify your plan. Here are some steps to help keep you from falling into a costly noncompliance trap.

Retirement Plans

Should Your 401(k) Plan Adopt An Auto-Enrollment Feature?

Many employers have 401(k) plans without a high percentage of staff members voluntarily participating. This means their employees are probably not saving enough for a comfortable retirement. Current tax rules make it easy for organizations to automatically enroll employees, which can also benefit executives and other higher-paid employees. Take a look at the rules.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
