Updating Your Online Identity Access for IRS Services

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) works with ID.me technology to provide authentication and identity verification for taxpayers and tax professionals accessing online IRS applications and services. Proving your identity through ID.me involves uploading government documents, taking a video selfie, and filling out personal information so that you can securely access IRS online services.

The IRS originally announced that, by the summer of 2022, anyone accessing e-services would be required to use the ID.me app. The agency later extended that deadline to the summer of 2023. And here we are!
