Why Sage Intacct Real Estate is Replacing Yardi as the Preferred Real Estate Software Platform!

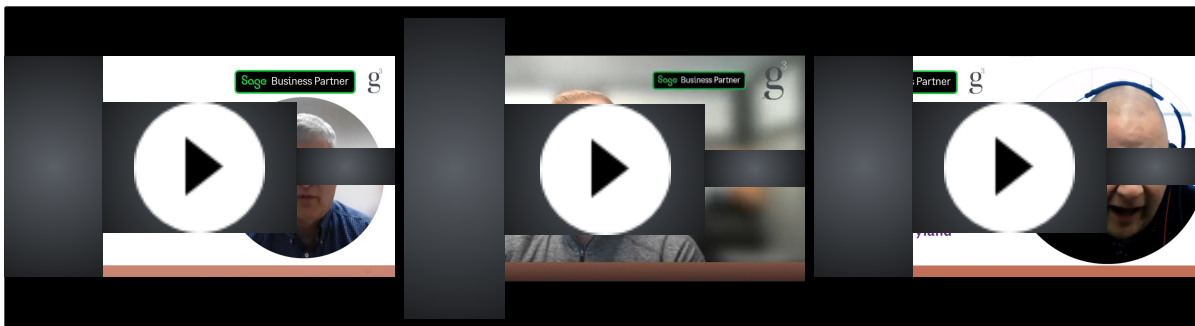

In the real estate and construction world, software solutions are an indispensable tool for streamlining financial management, accounting, and reporting. As the need for these solutions grows, two of the most prominent software platforms designed specifically for the industry are Sage Intacct Real Estate and Yardi. Both software solutions offer a range of features and benefits that can help companies in the industry to optimize their operations. But the more recently introduced Sage Intacct Real Estate has proven to have several advantages over the legacy Yardi program.

Sage Intacct Real Estate offers greater flexibility and scalability than Yardi. It is also a cloud-based accounting solution, meaning that it is accessible at any time, from anywhere there is an internet connection. This allows companies to easily scale their operations and add new locations without having to worry about installing new software on every computer or maintaining an on-premises server. In contrast, Yardi is typically installed on a company's own servers, which can limit flexibility. As companies expand, they may need to invest in additional hardware to support Yardi, which can be costly and time-consuming.
