Family Business

Manage Your Time or It Will Manage You

Time is money. You know the old saying. But if family business owners spend all their time running the company, stress and regret can soon become overwhelming and harmful to both the person and the business. This article provides a helpful, three-step process to mastering time management.

You May Want to Separate Real Estate Assets from Your Business

Many companies choose not to combine real estate and other assets into a single entity. Although there are justifiable legal reasons for doing so, this article delves into the potentially beneficial tax reasons for holding real estate in a separate entity. A sidebar looks at the advantages of separate entities for family businesses.
