Coping with Language Barriers

Increasing numbers of U.S. residents speak foreign languages, and many of them are participating in employee benefit plans. Your company may be required by law to assist them in understanding their benefits with a foreign language notice. Keep reading for a look at what you may have to do -- and how some companies go beyond that.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
