

GRAY, GRAY & GRAY, LLP

Integration & BPA Consulting

With a growing number of applications, it is becoming harder for organizations to manage and connect applications together. Working with Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP, we help to design and build scalable solutions across your business applications to enhance efficiency.

PROBLEM

Organizations have continued to see their tech-stack grow across different departments and teams. The challenge with managing the data between multiple systems grows as the number of applications increases.

With each application purchase there is potential to increase security risks, create fragmentation, hamper employee collaboration, and impact business spend. It can result in unregulated SaaS budgets, missed renewals, and increased ownership costs.

SOLUTION

As a Partner with Workato, Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP helps customers seamlessly connect these disparate applications. With Workato, organizations can establish live data feeds, enabling real-time synchronization and ensuring data accuracy across systems. Moreover, Workato empowers businesses with powerful automation capabilities, allowing them to streamline their business processes and drive operational efficiency. From sales and marketing to finance and HR, Workato's versatile integration platform enables organizations to unlock the full potential of their applications, improving collaboration, enhancing decision-making, and driving business growth.

WHAT DOES THE SOLUTION DO?

- Build scalable automated solutions for business processes across various departments (Accounting, HR, Sales, etc.).
- Manage your automations and connected systems within one platform.
- Enable users from multiple departments to contribute to the development of business process automations.
- Access thousands of pre-built connectors from Workato's library, enabling easy connectivity with applications like Slack, Salesforce, and Sage Intacct.
- Access to Workato community automations to help jump start automation development.
