Don't Let Profanity Put Your Business At Risk

They say language is ever-evolving. This might be true, but it doesn't mean your business should allow an "anything goes" approach to language in the workplace. Free-flowing profanity raises the likelihood of heated conflicts, harassment and lawsuits. This article makes the case for why every company should establish and enforce a policy barring vulgar language.

Why That's Brilliant! Suggestion Boxes Still Work

Suggestion boxes can work wonders. They cost little to set up and, over time, at least a few of your employees' ideas will likely save your company money and help it operate more efficiently. This article offers eight steps to a successful suggestion box program. A sidebar provides a brief history of the suggestion box, which starts in 1894.
