Major Change to Massachusetts Estate Tax

Massachusetts has enacted significant changes to its estate tax calculation through Bill H.4799, marking a substantial shift in how non-Massachusetts real estate and tangible personal property is treated for tax purposes. This reform brings welcome clarity and potential tax savings for Massachusetts residents with out-of-state property holdings.

Retirement Plan Contribution Updates for 2025

The IRS has announced several changes to retirement plan contribution limits and income thresholds for 2025. For 401(k) plans, the standard contribution limit will increase by $500 to reach $23,500. Individual Retirement Account (IRA) contribution limits will remain steady at $7,000, the same level as 2024.
