Boston Business Journal Ranks Gray, Gray, & Gray #42 on Fast50 List

We are delighted to announce that The Boston Business Journal has ranked Gray, Gray & Gray as the 42nd fastest growing private company in Massachusetts in its 2025 Fast 50 List. The BBJ Fast 50 list was selected and ranked based on total revenue growth from 2021 to 2024.

"Our position as one of the few remaining independently owned and operated firms leads to trusted relationships with our clients that cannot be duplicated by larger firms who are beholden to owners in a distant city. Our independence allows us to maintain local leadership, make decisions swiftly and strategically, and keep our focus where it belongs - on the needs of our clients," says James DeLeo, MBA, CPA/MST, Leading Partner at Gray, Gray & Gray.

How AI is Changing the Integration Process

In the past 20 years numerous technological shifts have reshaped how organizations connect their systems and how users interact with technology. But the introduction of artificial intelligence into the equation presents a significant paradigm shift – perhaps one of the most transformative and revolutionary since the advent of the transistor. Organizations of all sizes, from all industries, have the potential to benefit from AI in streamlining and supercharging the integration process.

The integration landscape – traditionally characterized by complex middleware, APIs and data mapping exercises – is undergoing a fundamental reimagining as AI capabilities mature and proliferate throughout the technology stack. This is a logical extension of the growing trend of existing tools receiving new functionality that leverages AI.
