

Home About Areas of Focus Services Partners Foundation

Click to watch our video and discover how Gray, Gray & Gray delivers the Power of More to each of our clients!

Personal Info | Refer Colleague | Unsubscribe | Feedback

Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP's News

Next Week! The Power of Connection: Integration Use Cases and Security Considerations

Our Technology Integrations Consulting services bi-monthly webinar series: "The Power of Connection" continues next week. In these 30-minute sessions, we'll tackle all the burning questions about how to best deploy and utilize the incredible array of tools available to streamline operations and build a more efficient business.

Join us for our next webinar of the series, Integration Use Cases and Security Considerations, on June 17 at 1:00pm, where we'll help you gain a better sense of integration security and share a few use cases too. Click HERE to register.

Learn more and register for other webinars in the series HERE.

Full Article

Family Business

Keeping It in the Family...and on the Payroll

There are many good reasons for small business owners to hire trusted family members, including that they may be able to reap potential tax savings. But it's important to pick the right person for the right position and consider how employees who are outside the family might respond to nepotism. Here's some guidance if you're thinking about hiring your spouse, your children or other relatives.

Full Article

Benefit Q&As for Employers

SECURE 2.0: Starter 401(k) Plans and Correcting Errors in Established Plans

The questions we answer in this article are:

1. What's a "starter" 401(k) plan under the SECURE 2.0 law?
2. What major changes to the IRS Employee Plan Compliance Resolution System were created by SECURE 2.0?

Human Resources

Don't Let Profanity Put Your Business At Risk

They say language is ever-evolving. This might be true, but it doesn't mean your business should allow an "anything goes" approach to language in the workplace. Free-flowing profanity raises the likelihood of heated conflicts, harassment and lawsuits. This article makes the case for why every company should establish and enforce a policy barring vulgar language.

Full Article

Disclaimer of Liability

Our firm provides the information in this e-newsletter for general guidance only, and does not constitute the provision of legal advice, tax advice, accounting services, investment advice, or professional consulting of any kind. The information provided herein should not be used as a substitute for consultation with professional tax, accounting, legal, or other competent advisers. Before making any decision or taking any action, you should consult a professional adviser who has been provided with all pertinent facts relevant to your particular situation. Tax articles in this e-newsletter are not intended to be used, and cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding accuracy-related penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer. The information is provided "as is," with no assurance or guarantee of completeness, accuracy, or timeliness of the information, and without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of performance, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose.

The information contained in this communication (including any attachments and/or re-directs to other online sources) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code.

Webinar content is intended for educational purposes only. Webinars provide a brief summary based on our understanding and interpretation of current law. All tax references are to federal tax law only, unless otherwise stated. The information contained in the webinars is general in nature and is based on authorities that are subject to change. It is not, and should not be construed as accounting, legal or tax advice or opinion provided by Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP. The material presented may not be applicable to, or suitable for, specific circumstances or needs, and may require consideration of non-tax factors and tax factors not described herein. Contact Gray, Gray & Gray or another tax professional prior to taking any action based upon this information. Changes in tax laws or other factors could affect, on a prospective or retroactive basis the information contained herein; Gray, Gray & Gray assumes no obligation to inform the reader/webinar attendee of any such changes. The material presented is not intended to, and cannot be used to, avoid IRS penalties. This material supports the marketing and promotion of accounting services. Seek advice based on your particular circumstances from independent tax, legal accounting, insurance, investment, and financial advisors.

