Gray, Gray & Gray Among Top 100 Largest Private Companies in Massachusetts

The Boston Business Journal ranked Gray, Gray & Gray 99th among the Top 100 Largest Private Companies in Massachusetts, based on annual revenues of $38 million.

"Being named one of the Top 100 businesses in the state is something we're incredibly proud of. But at the end of the day, it all comes down to the people — our amazing clients who trust us with their businesses, and our hardworking team who show up every day ready to deliver The Power of More," says James DeLeo, MBA, CPA/MST, Leading Partner at Gray, Gray & Gray. "We are also proud of the fact that we have arrived here as an independent and locally owned firm, giving us the ability to focus on the needs of our clients and our people, and not just next quarter's earnings."

Sec. 6166: Help For Family Businesses with Estate Tax Bills

Even with high current exemptions, gift and estate taxes can place a burden on families with significant wealth tied up in closely held businesses. Internal Revenue Code Section 6166 may be able to provide relief by allowing the estates of family business owners to defer estate taxes or pay them in installments.

Reduce Expenses By Monitoring Dependent Benefit Eligibility

The cost of providing health insurance is a growing concern among most employers, and there doesn't appear to be relief on the horizon. If your plan includes a large number of employee dependents, this might be a good time to reexamine their eligibility. Removing those who, for any reason, are no longer eligible could save substantially on the cost of providing health insurance.
