Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP's News

Gray, Gray & Gray Partners Michael Cecere and Paul Gerry, Jr. Retire

It is with deep appreciation and gratitude that Gray, Gray & Gray announces that two of the firm's Partners, Michael Cecere, CPA, MST and Paul Gerry, Jr., CPA, have retired.

Michael Cecere joined Gray, Gray & Gray in 1989 and was elected Partner in 2002. He led the firm's Nonprofit and Employee Benefit Plan Audit practice groups, while contributing his experience and expertise to clients across the firm. Paul Gerry, Jr. joined Gray, Gray & Gray in 2008 when the firm acquired his previous firm, Patterson & Gerry. He led the firm's Client Accounting & Advisory practice group and was a strong proponent of advancing the technology profile within the firm.

Best wishes on your retirements, Michael and Paul! Click HERE to read the full press release.

Don't Treat Your Family Business Like a Royal Dynasty

Long live the king! And queen, for that matter. This was a common refrain in medieval times. Naturally, at some point, the monarch of a kingdom passed away, at which point the eldest son typically ascended. This article explains why family businesses should not follow this model. Rather, they should engage in a careful and gradual succession plan that considers all viable candidates.

Follow Detailed Recordkeeping Rules for Vehicle Expense Deductions

Deductions for vehicle expenses may be easy targets during IRS audits. That's because many taxpayers misunderstand the rules and fail to maintain detailed mileage logs. Or they mistakenly assume their company qualifies for an exception from the IRS's strict recordkeeping requirements. Here's what you should know to preserve your deduction for vehicle expenses.

Where Do You Legally Live?

Which state (or states) do you call home? Many people move to new states with lower state income tax rates, hoping to reduce their tax bills. But they may run into problems if they fail to establish legal residency in the new states — or terminate residency in the old states. Here, we discuss the importance of establishing "domicile" and several effective ways to prove it, including one decision based on the location of the taxpayer's beloved pet.
