Gray, Gray, & Gray Participates in "Day of Service" at Three Local Organizations

Gray, Gray & Gray was proud to participate in a "Day of Service" on Tuesday, June 23, as part of a statewide community initiative sponsored by MassCPAs.

"At Gray, Gray & Gray, we believe service goes beyond the workplace. The Day of Service underscores our core values: meaningful impact happens when businesses invest in their employees and communities, not just financially, but through hands-on engagement and compassion," said Rita Senier-Coletti, the firm's Talent Acquisition & Culture Specialist.

Family Business

Keep Family Matters Separate From Business Operations

"Family business" can have a double-meaning. The term refers to your company, of course, but it can also mean the baggage and drama that every family generates to some degree. The key is to separate "at-home" behaviors from business operations. This article offers up some helpful and commonsense tips for doing just that.

How to Excel at Executive Hiring

Great business success can rarely, if ever, be accomplished alone. Most company owners reach a point where they simply must add some co-leaders to the organization to rise above the competition and reach that next level. This article describes a variety of best practices for executive hiring, including publicizing your intentions and preparing for the interview.
