

The DealMaker

Home Contact

Personal Info | Refer Colleague | Unsubscribe | Feedback

Gray, Gray & Gray - A Frazier & Deeter Company News

Frazier & Deeter Establishes New England Presence with Acquisition of Gray, Gray & Gray

We're excited to share that Gray, Gray & Gray is joining Frazier & Deeter, marking an exciting new chapter for our firm, our people and the clients we proudly serve. By joining FD, we'll continue building on the legacy we've created while gaining access to expanded resources, capabilities and opportunities to better support our clients for years to come.

Click HERE to read the full press release.

Full Article

Strategic Thinking Podcast Special Edition: A Conversation on the Future of Gray, Gray & Gray and Frazier & Deeter

In this special edition of the Strategic Thinking Podcast, host Bryan Pearce, Director of Strategic Business Planning, leads a conversation with Jeremy Jones, Managing Partner & CEO of Frazier & Deeter, and Jim DeLeo, Boston Office Managing Partner of Gray, Gray & Gray – A Frazier & Deeter Company, about the recently announced combination of the two firms and what it means for clients, team members, and the marketplace.

Listen or watch the full conversation HERE to learn more about the future of the combined firm and the continued commitment to serving clients with the same care, responsiveness, and forward-looking perspective.

Mergers & Acquisitions

Tax Issues When SELLING a Business With an Earnout

Using an "earnout" provision has become a common way to sell or buy a business. With this type of transaction, the seller receives some future payments based on the performance of the business after the sale. Despite the advantages, there are important tax consequences for the buyer and the seller. Here are three different scenarios that might result, along with some ways to minimize the amount of federal taxes.

Full Article

Beware: M&A Activity Can Trigger Unexpected Tax Issues

During a merger or acquisition, the issues surrounding employee benefit plans may not get a lot of attention. But afterwards, the complexities of merging a variety of benefit arrangements can overwhelm the companies. Even worse, the IRS is on the lookout for compliance failures after a transaction and may step in to conduct a "team audit."

Full Article

Disclaimer of Liability

Attest services are provided through Frazier & Deeter, LLC, a licensed US public accounting firm.

Our firm provides the information in this e-newsletter for general guidance only and does not constitute the provision of legal advice, tax advice, accounting services, investment advice, or professional consulting of any kind. The information provided herein should not be used as a substitute for consultation with professional tax, accounting, legal, or other competent advisers. Before making any decision or taking any action, you should consult a professional adviser who has been provided with all pertinent facts relevant to your particular situation. Tax articles in this e-newsletter are not intended to be used and cannot be used by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding accuracy-related penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer. The information is provided "as is," with no assurance or guarantee of completeness, accuracy, or timeliness of the information and without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of performance, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose.

The information contained in this communication (including any attachments and/or re-directs to other online sources) is not intended or written to be used and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code.

Webinar content is intended for educational purposes only. Webinars provide a brief summary based on our understanding and interpretation of current law. All tax references are to federal tax law only, unless otherwise stated. The information contained in the webinars is general in nature and is based on authorities that are subject to change. It is not and should not be construed as accounting, legal, or tax advice or opinion provided by Gray, Gray & Gray, a Frazier & Deeter Company. The material presented may not be applicable to, or suitable for, specific circumstances or needs and may require consideration of non-tax factors and tax factors not described herein. Contact Gray, Gray & Gray, a Frazier & Deeter Company, or another tax professional prior to taking any action based upon this information. Changes in tax laws or other factors could affect, on a prospective or retroactive basis, the information contained herein; Gray, Gray & Gray, a Frazier & Deeter Company assumes no obligation to inform the reader/webinar attendee of any such changes. The material presented is not intended to and cannot be used to avoid IRS penalties. This material supports the marketing and promotion of accounting services. Seek advice based on your particular circumstances from independent tax, legal accounting, insurance, investment, and financial advisors.

150 Royall Street Canton, MA 02021